Class meets multiple times per week. When you sign up you may choose either one or two times each week to be your times for the class. This is done on a first come, first serve basis. The lower price is the cost for one time per week. The higher price is the cost for two times per week.

* Confident K9 is open to all manners and puppy students as their second class. This class is not open to dogs with reactivity issues as it won't be setup to handle those types of cases. All students will do one normal manners or puppy class and then may choose Confident K9 as their second class if doing 2x/week.
